North Metro TV Receives 2010 Excellence in Business Award

Blaine, Minn. – (November 10th, 2010) – North Metro TV received the Excellence in Business Award in the Services category from the Metro North Chamber of Commerce during their annual award ceremony. Over 100 chamber members, elected officials, and service men and women, came to the Courtyards of Andover to support this years winners and hear keynote speaker Major General Richard Nash, retired Commander of the 34th Infantry Division (Red Bulls) & 30th Adjutant General of the State of Minnesota.

North Metro TV feels very honored to have been selected for this prestigious award, according to Heidi Arnson, executive director. "North Metro TV's goal remains to create high quality, local news, sports, informative and government programming, while providing a forum for independent voices in our community" said Arnson

"I am so pleased that North Metro TV is this year's recipient of the Services Category award," stated Lori Higgins, President of the MetroNorth Chamber. "Besides providing high-quality programming to the community, North Metro TV exemplifies service in everything that they do. North Metro TV goes above and beyond by offering free classes, training, resources and air time to many local community organizations and businesses. I personally appreciate their staff's countless volunteer hours to our Chamber. North Metro TV is truly committed to this community, and I am proud to have them as a member of the MetroNorth Chamber."

Since 1986, North Metro TV has grown from a small, six employee, narrowly focused operation, to a thriving organization that employs 11 full-time and 22 part-time staff. According to Arnson, they strive to be flexible and responsive to meet the video needs of the community, including government, education, nonprofit, and business sectors.

North Metro TV serves the cities of Blaine, Centerville, Circle Pines, Ham Lake, Lexington, Lino Lakes, and Spring Lake Park. For more information about North Metro TV visit www.northmetrotv.com.
